To whom it may concern,

I work with Joel Sarakula as a business partner, musical collaborator, booking agent, and event promoter in Germany. I hereby confirm that we have a tour scheduled for November and December 2025, with confirmed performances at a minimum of nine different venues across Germany, Austria and the Netherlands – with additional dates expected.

We anticipate a net revenue of approximately EUR 800 per show after basix expenses.

Joel Sarakula is a well-regarded artist in this region, known for his engaging live performances and regular radio airplay. I look forward to working with him on this upcoming tour.

Sincerely,

Alexander Dommisch
